COUNTY NON-WAR CONSTRUCTION BOARD AT WORK

Will Meet Every Monday Afternoon in the Court House to Consider Matters of Interest

The San Mateo County Committee on Non-War Construction composed of John MacBain of Menlo Park, as chairman, W. H. Pearson of Burlingame and W. E. Tourtelotte of San Mateo, has announced that it will hold regular meetings every Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the supervisors chambers in the County Court House at Redwood City. This Committee as the representative of the Council of National Defense, will receive all applications for permits of proposed construction in San Mateo County, of all roadways, buildings and other structures.

All applications for proposed construction must state all facts necessary for the guidance of the Committee in determining whether or not the undertaking proposed is essential to and will contribute either directly or indirectly toward winning the war. The application must show location of proposed improvement; exact situation, if of significance; name of owner; estimated cost; kind of structure proposed, re-enforced concrete, brick, frame, etc., business for which proposed structure is to be used; and brief statement of its essentialities together with any other facts which may seem pertinent. Applications must be filed in duplicate and blanks may be secured from any City Clerk. The contract, and if any plans and specifications should accompany the application.

All applications should be addressed by mail to the Committee on Non-War Construction, County Clerk's Office, Court House, Redwood City, California. Hearings on applications will be held at each regular meeting of the Committee.

After the application is granted a construction permit will be issued which will constitute a warrant to all manufacturers and dealers who have taken the pledges of co-operation with the War Industry Board, to sell and direct building materials required in the construction of licensed building project.

While it is not the policy of the government to interfere unnecessarily with any legitimate business, industry or construction project, it must be borne in mind that there is a great increasing demand for labor, material and capital for the production and distribution of direct and indirect war needs, to satisfy which much non-war construction must be deferred.

A full realization of this fact by all loyal and patriotic citizens is all that is required to postpone such construction as interferes with War Progress.

SUPERVISORS HOLD REGULAR SESSION

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, October 7, there being present Dr. C. V. Thompson, presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, John MacBain and Jos. M. Francis.

Mrs. John McGinn, chairman of the San Mateo County Committee of the State and National Councils of Defense, addressed the board relative to a request made in writing at a previous meeting, asking the board for an additional appropriation for carrying on the work of the committee in the county.

The board, on motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, voted on appropriation of $200 for the above cause, making an order at the same time that the auditor draw a warrant in favor of the commission for the above amount.

Attorney Lee T. Ross, county food administrator, addressed the board and asked that he be allowed an additional hundred dollars for expenses connected with carrying on the work of the office.

On motion of Francis, seconded by Hickey, the above request was granted, the sum of $100 being ordered transferred to the fund set aside for the use of the food administrator.

A. Becco of Millbrae was granted a permit to peddle dry goods in the county, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown.

H. Forman of San Mateo was granted a junk peddlers' license, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown.

District Attorney Swart, to whom the claims of the News-Leader Publishing company of San Mateo and the Burlingame Advance Publishing company for the printing the great register and the indexes for same had been referred, submitted a lengthy opinion in the matter, in which he held that the county clerk had the right to give out this work and that it was within the province of the board of supervisors to fix a reasonable price for the same.

The clerk of the board stated that the opinion given by the district attorney was in accordance with an opinion he had received from the attorney general.

The board, thereupon, voted to allow the above two claims, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey.

S .D. Merk, owner of the Burlingame Publishing company, then addressed the board relative to the claim presented some time ago by the South San Francisco Enterprise Publishing company in the sum of $2753, the same being for the printing of the county delinquent tax list, and which had been held up.

County Tax Collector Ambrose McSweeney, who was present at the meeting, explained that the reason why the claim was larger this year than in former years was because this year tracts of land throughout the county, heretofore assessed as a whole, were assessed against individual lot owners, making a vastly larger number of items. A charge of fifty cents, he further explained was made on each item to cover the cost of the advertising of the delinquency.

After further discussion in the matter the board, on motion of Francis, seconded by Brown, voted to lay the matter over for one week.

District Attorney Swart to whom a communication from the United States Coast Guard Service relative to the construction of a telephone line from Pescadero to the Ano Nuevo Light Station had been referred, reported that there was no legal objection to the placing of poles along the county highway necessary for the system. On motion of Hickey, seconded by MacBain, the clerk was ordered to communicate with the proper officials in the matter and statet that the board had no objection of the line, and Chairman Thompson was authorized to sign the necessary contract in the matter.

County Auditor J. J. Shields submitted a report showing a credit of $16,967.41 that had been apportioned back to the county from the State automobile licenses and also from the auto fines imposed by the justices of the peace of the county during the past year.

A communication was read from Auditor Shields, complaining that for some time past his office had failed to receive from the clerk of the board copies of resolutions and orders adopted and passed by the supervisors relative to financial matters of the county, such as the fixing of the yearly tax rate, the raising of salaries of employes and the transferring of money from one fund to another.

TOWN TRUSTEES IN REGULAR MEETING MONDAY EVENING

Raise in Salary Granted to Employes of the Street and Water Department

Monday evening the city trustees, with all present, transacted the following business:

Corporal Chester L. Irvin, of Camp Fremont, applied to the board for a permit to hold a 3 o'clock dance in the Foresters hall on October 19, the same was granted. The Order of Druids was granted a permit for a 3 o'clock danc for November 9, and the Rermen was granted a permit to hold a dance this evening.

C. Blackman was given a junk dealers' permit, upon the recommendation of Chief of Police J. P. Coleman.

Superintendent of Streets and Water Department Edward Dearborn was given an increase in salary from $100 to $150 a month and his employes will receive $4 a day instead of $3.50 commencing October 1. This was made necessary on account of the advanced cost if living necessities.

A communication was received from M. Zeichman asking the board to put in a plank walk on Redwood avenue at Five Points. The board instructed Clerk Price to communicate with the property owners on this street requesting that they make the temporary walk, as the board did not want to go to the expense of putting down concrete walks at this time.

A communication was received from Mrs. James Eva, in behalf of the local Red Cross, asking the board to loan to the society their truck to collect salvage. The matter was referred to the street superintendent to arrange for one day a week for this work.

Superintendent Dearborn reported that the drinking fountain in front of the grammar school was in need of repairs and was ordered to have the work done.

City Clerk Price was requested to notify the property owners of the city to place a box or some protection around their water meters in order to protect them against freezing which causes the meters to break also to place the meters so the superintendent can read them without digging in the mud and water.

Due to the fact that Mr. Chasten, who had been giving dances in the Foresters hall, weekly, gave a 3 o'clock dance Saturday night without a permit, the board decided to assess all commercial dances as follows: For a 3 o'clock dance, $5; and a 12 o'clock dance $2.50.

The board instructed Clerk Price to purchase a flag for the fire department.

The monthly report of Chief of Police J. P. Coleman, for the month of September follows:

Taxes	22.20
Water Connections, etc.	70.00
Rent Fire House	1.00

SCHOOLS AND PUBLIC PLACES ARE TEMPORARILY CLOSED

There are a number of Spanish influenza cases developed in town, a few of which are quite serious. As a precautionary measure, Health Officer Chapin has closed the theatre, has asked that there be no public gatherings of any kind. All the churches will be closed tomorrow, there will be no services of any kind.

Dr. Chapin advises that the best precaution is for persons to keep away from those suffering from lagrippe or so-called colds in the head. The doctor says the people need not be alarmed as the epidemic will soon pass away. The schools in town will not open on Monday. They will be closed all week. It is reported that there are about 25 mild cases in town. Marshal James P. Coleman and his family are down with it as is Miss Martha Jacobson of the telephone office.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Nathan P. Graves, formerly of Redwood City, passed away at Rochester, New York, on Saturday lasct. Some years ago Mr. Graves married Miss Cecelia Hynding of Redwood City who survives him together with four children. The deceased was a nephew of the late N. B. Graves formerly in the hardware business in this city. It is most likely that Mrs. Graves will move back to Redwood City.

William Couch, a recent graduate of the Bryant Aviation school of Redwood City, passed away of Spanish inflenza while on his way to the front in France last week. The remains were taken to Liverpool from where they will be shipped to the young man's former home at Palo Alto where his mother resides. Young Couch intended to be flying at the front in a short time when he left here. He was well-known and well liked in Redwood City.

Party who found handbag containing gold watch, valued as a keepsake and money, on the 5:35 p. m. bus from the city or on the Woodside road last Tuesday will be rewarded by leaving same at the Times-Gazette office. 28*

A SAD CASE

A contractor in Philadelphia, who has a considerable amount of work in hand for the government, visited the plant one day and discovered a number of things he didn't like. Of one in particular he spoke to the foreman:

"I have just caught a fellow hanging around smoking during working hours. So I ordered them to give him a week's wages and told him to clear out."

"Yes," said the foreman, with a grin, "I know all about it, for I have just seen the man leaving. Why, sir, he wasn't employed here—he was merely looking for a job!"

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT

THOMAS J. LENNON

FOR CONGRESS

WHICH ONE IS MOST THOROUGHLY AMERICAN?

Mr. Hersman, the candidate for Congress in this District against Mr. Hayes, the present incumbent, has caused to be circulated certain statements calculated, as he thinks, to show that Mr. Hayes is not as good an American as he is. There may be some difference of opinion as to what constitutes a good American, but Mr. Hayes could be nothing else. His ancestors on his father's side came to Connecticut from Scotland in 1689 and on his mother's side from England to Boston, Massachusetts, in 1538. His forefathers were conquering the wilderness and the Indians and fighting at Saratoga and other Revolutionary battle fields in order that they might enjoy in this new land individual freedom more than one hundred and fifty years before the German forebears of Mr. Hersman ever thought of quitting their fatherland for this land of opportunity. All the male members of Mr. Hayes' family of military age fought in the Union armies and by every means in their power upheld the hands of President Lincoln in our great Civil war while the members of Mr. Hersman's family were fighting for or talking secession down in Tennessee.

It may be asked, what has this to do with the election of a Congressman in this District? Just this: Blood is thicker than water, and every man's ideals and his leading characteristics are very largely the result of hereditory, family tradition and association in the family life. From a long line of Colonial and Revolutionary ancestry Mr. Hayes has inherited a love of liberty and a hatred of tyranny and militarism wherever they exist that are just as much a part of him as his breath. If he is not a one hundred-per-cent American where would you look for one? He has no affection or attachments for any land but this. He and his forefathers for many generations have known no flag but the Stars and Stripes, and he is behind that flag with the best that is in him—with all he has and holds dear—no matter where it goes. Whatever he thought in April, 1917, about the wisdom of our embarking in it, since we entered the conflict that has been and will continue to be his attitude until the end.

OUR REPUBLICAN STANDARD-BEARER

Governor Stephens is the standard-bearer of a united Republican party. His honesty of purpose, his sincerity and his absolute fairness have won for him the confidence and friendship of all factions. He will receive the enthusiastic support at the November election of every loyal Republican in the state.

Republicans of California are proud of the record of their party—but equally proud of the splendid character of the party's nominee for governor.

As chief executive since war was declared, William D. Stephens has measured up every inch to the high position of governor. He has been a War Governor in the truest and broadest sense of that term. From the beginning he has loyally and patriotically supported the war policies of Pesident Wilson. His vision has been broadened and sharpened by his service as a member of Congress, and his experience there has peculiarly fitted him for the responsible post that he is now so successfully filling.

He is a governor of whom every California—Republican or Democrat—can well be proud.

REFORMS IN THE SUPREME COURT ARE IMPENDING

The Supreme Court of California appears to be on the eve of an important change, both in methods and in personnel. The results of the primary election are still unofficial but the enormous vote cast for Thomas J. Lennon, now presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal, and for Curtis D. Wilbur, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, predicts with almost inevitable certainty their election at the November polls.

Both were nominated at the primary in August by a vote farovershadowing that cast for the third contender and, assuming the natural conclusion that they will greatly increase their lead in the finals, the result seems to be assured. Both men appear to be sure of victory and with this triumph will come new ideas, new methods and new life to the Supreme Court, which is now approximately three years behind in its work.

Justice Lennon has performed a notable service to the state as Presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal. He has substituted for the exasperating slow and costly consideration of cases a system of decisions from the bench. Time, expense and patience have been considered. Lawyers have been gratified and litigants benefitted. Executive capacity in the administration of the Court's affairs has simplified its problems, kept clear its calendars and removed the congestion which formerly was a matter of reproach.

The election of Lennon to the Supreme Court and the retention of Wilbur means the introduction of these reforms to that tribunal. The activities of Justice Wilbur during the time he served as Superior Judge in Los Angeles county, when he brought to that court the same remedies which have been of such advantage to the District Court of Appeal, are a pledge that he will cooperate actively and understandingly in a work so earnestly desired by the public.

ROLPH MEN SUPPORT STEPHENS

Rolph supporters are lining up loyally behind Governor Stephens, according to a poll just taken in four cities—San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and San Jose.

This poll shows that out of seven hundred men who supported Rolph in the primaries, 587 indicated their intention to support Governor Stephens, 88 expressed a determination to write in Rolph's name on the ballot, while only 33 declared their intention to vote for either Bell or Roser.

In addition, Governor Stephens is assured of the solid backing of those who in the primaries voted for Hayes, Bordwell, Fickert and McGee. Each of these four Republican candidates have written to Governor Stephens promising their enthusiastic support. Governor Stephens will get practically the entire Heney support and a very considerable share of those who enlisted at the primaries under the Woolwine banners.

Political experts agree that Governor Stephens will be swept into office by the biggest majority ever given a gubernatorial candidate—a deserved tribute to his patriotic administration as war governor.

PATRIOTISM OF E. A. HAYES STANDS UNQUESTIONED

No one questions the loyalty and patriotism of Congressman E. A. Hayes among his colleagues. Even those of opposite political faith bear witness to his sincerity and love of country, as was strikingly illustrated on the floor of the House recently by the Majority Floor Leader, the Hon. Claude Kitchin, who, during debate declared that "the distinguished gentleman from California (Mr. Hayes) is as intensely loyal and patriotic as any man in this Capitol."

Did A "Business" Dentist Fill Your Teeth?

If a low priced (?) "business" dentist filled your teeth, you will appreciate why the Dental measure should not pass.

Amendment No. 21 would permit "operators" with little experience from other States to practise in California without an examination.

The California Dental laws are very strict now, and the high standard must be maintained.

The present law admits all competent dentists.

Low priced incompetent dentistry is always the dearest in the end.

Keep out the riff-raff from other States.

Aftermath of the Broderick-Terry Duel.

An aftermath or incident resulting from the Broderick-Terry duel is worthy of historical reference. Jerome C. Davis, after which Davis, Yolo county, was named, a good friend of Broderick, while in a cafe referred to the duel as a "murder." This was overheard by Thomas Hayes county clerk of San Francisco in 1851-52, and one of the first settlers in Hayes valley. Having been a second to Terry, Hayes challenged a Republican primary, but in those days, when in fact there were no primary laws, this was not considered a serious offense. Mr. Johnson, having a good education, held positions as clerk in county offices and of courts for several years, and in 1875 was nominated for State Senator by the "Short Hair" wing of the Democratic party, but was defeated. At this period the "Short Hair" wing of both parties represented the Central Pacific Railroad company. In June 1876 when the future Governing camp to Sacramento in the closing years of the '60's. He had an uncommon gift of oratory and as becomes a Virginian was a Democrat during the years of the war, frequently leaving his home in the Sierras to deliver campaign speeches. He was appointed State Tide Land Commissioner by Governor Haight in 1868 and was commissioned to be the first Code Commissioner on May 4, 1870. Early in the '70's he allied himself with the Governor Booth Independent Republican or "Dolly Varden" party and was elected a State Senator from Sacramento county to serve in the legislative sessions of 1975-77. This party affiliation led him to be anti-railroad and in one of his first florid campaign speeches he even threatened to lead a party "to burn their bridges and tear up their tracks." TEACHERS' INSTITUTE HELD AT BURLINGAME THIS WEEK

The most important event in the teachers' year, the Institute Week, took place at Burlingame this week. The sessions were held in the aud-avenue school, Superintendent Roy W. Cloud presided as the official head of our school system. He welcomed the teachers to their work hoping that the program he had prepared woud prove both pleasant and profitable.

Not forgetting patriotism under the direction of Prof. O. M. Carrington of Redwood City, the Star Spangled Banner was sung with unusual spirit and our glorious flag was saluted, just as the teachers and their pupils do every school day of the year.

The president of the Board of Trustees of the Burlingame school, Mr. M. G. McClinton, extended the welcome of his city to the teachers, hoping they would enjoy their stay. He said he was sure all of his people were glad to have the teachers among them and embraced the opportunity to compliment his own teachers and their District Superintendent, H. E. H. Ruggles, who had done so well in keeping their work fully up to the high average maintained by the county.

For the teachers W. J. Savage of Colma responded in his own way winning generous approval for his effort.

Prof. O. J. Kern by means of an illustrated lecture made clear the need of more improvement and direction in school ground activities. According to him it was not necessary to spend large sums of money to accomplish this if everyone would be enthusiastic and try his best. Through this work natural organization and understanding would be brought about which would result in great benefit in the future. At the close of his talk Superintendent Roy Cloud remarked that he had prepared this year's program, thinking of awakening the whole county to school ground improvement as a number of the districts were slightly neglectful in this respect. Some places were so neglected that occasionally he was forced to pass them by when he was exhibiting to visitors what he had.

The Institute was particularly favored in having on its program the able Aurelio Henry Reinhart, the president of Mills College for two lectures. She proved herself a profound, interesting and forcible speaker.

In her talk on "The Development of American Ideals," she held to teachers their great responsibility as makers of the future nation. As they teach so shall our country be. Success can not be achieved except by those who are sincerely in earnest. Of course certain teachers do not need to pay attention. They should join the aviation service at once as they are wholly useless on earth.

This remark caused several on the back seats to sit up and listen better than they ever did before. How pretty they would look aviating? Some boys and girls would have reason to be thankful if they did join and fly away.

Continuing, the lady said: Taking into consideration the great amount of money spent on education at present, it is reasonable to expect a change for the better. If such is not the result the people of the future will have sure cause to look back at this period as having been a time of reckless waste.

Talking on literature the speaker was decidedly modern and instructive. She thought every teacher should improve herself in this subject if for no other purpose than to gain more to do her work better. She paid high compliment to Thos. Jefferson as a writer and speaker whose thoughts were as true today as when he gave them to the world. She praised the present writers of America, especially the newspaper men representing different publications at the seat of the war. She spoke of President Woodrow Wilson as the one whose speeches were perfect models and who possessed the literary magic to express the sentiments of America in such an universal language that all the nations of the earth comprehended fully and at once.

The remainder of the first day was pleasantly spent witnessing the rendition of an operetta, entitled, "The Five Princes" by the children of the Burlingame schools under the direction of Miss Mary Mayberry. The singing, acting, dancing and costumes were quite marvelous and merited the hearty approval of all. It was certainly a treat to the teachers.

The second day's work was begun with the grand old song "America," Prof. Carrington and Mr. Ruggles at the piano and an extra verse composed in honor of valiant men over there.

The Junior Red Cross was discussed by Mrs. H. A. Kluegel, who announced that according to a late ruling all funds must be turned into a national fund in order to expedit work and guard against possible scandal.

Child Welfare was the subject of Mrs. John L. McGinn. She told of the large number of babies that had been examined some of whose physical defects had been discovered and precautions advised to remedy them. Superintendent Roy W. Cloud asked every teacher to subscribe for Fourth Liberty Bonds so that it might be said that the Institute was a hundred per cent class.

Fred L. Thomas, assistant district attorney, San Jose, talked on Food Problems. He told how Herbert Hoover and the American people had brought the cause of the Allies from the verge of disaster to the certainty of victory through the saving of wheat. A few months ago we were obliged to content ourselves with 50 to 50 as far as wheat is concerned now we have provided for all the Allied armies and are permitted to enjoy from now on 80 to 20, a big improvement. All this has been accomplished through saving what we were in the habit of wasting. This habit of saving forced upon us will help us for generations to come. In describing what our saving of food had averted, Mr. Thomas was fervently in earnest and he certainly expressed the sentiments of the teachers in his denunciation of our enemies. He did not feel that the war was over yet but he was sure of success if the saving of food could be continued.

The children of the Burlingame kindergarten, exemplified "A Little Rosebud" under the direction of Miss Doris Dice. This lesson will be reproduced in many schools during the coming year, like the Billy Goat story of last year.

Prof. O. M. Carrington was called upon for special singing and he responded with a couple of songs, one of which, a composition of his own, a tribute to our boys over there, was simply most delightful. Prof. Carrington made every teacher feel grateful to him.

Mrs. Van Hagan, taking the place of someone else did well talking on physical education. She rested the teachers by putting them through a few exercises.

Mrs. May Dexter Henshall told of the benefit to be derived from consolidating the school libraries with the county library. Many more books could be obtained if this plan was followed, as it is already in many parts of the state.

Harr Wagner, a well-known educational and literary character of this county, whose home is Montara, talked, in his intimate association with California's poet, Joaquin Miller in such an earnest way that he won the hearts of all who heard him.

The two lectures by Prof. E. D. Adams, head of the History Department of the Stanford University, were authoritive and made plain several parts of our history that were hazy to the most learned of the Institute. Why England settled the war of 1812 so gracefully yet mysteriously as far as we were concerned and why she has been our friend since 1867 were two points that the able professor settled conclusively.

To make a good American citizen all means should be taken in the grammar schools to establish these five ideas in the character of each boy and girl: Freedom, personal obligation, patriotism, conciliation, compromise and good faith. This idea was obtained from the best school of civil government in Lawrence, Massachusetts.

Miss Signe Hageithorne, director of physical education, San Francisco, gave excellent directions for teachers to follow along this line which is now compulsory in our schools.

W. J. Cagney, superintendent of San Benito county gave a very good talk on "America First" in which he introduced numerous patriotic quotations appropriately.

Miss Vera Emerson, the teacher of singing at San Mateo delighted the Institute with a vocal solo.

On Wednesday afternoon the Institute was closed with the reading and adoption of the usual resolutions, the singing of America and generous applause to Superintendent Roy W. Cloud for having provided such an agreeable annual gathering.

The next Institute will be held in Halfmoon Bay.

MISSION OF AMERICA ABOUT TO BE ACCOMPLISHED

Will H. Hayes, chairman of the National Republican Central Committee sent out the following communication:

American soldiers in France are at this moment demonstrating to the world the reason for America and the stuff of which this Republic is made.

Their complete success and the consequent eternal establishment everywhere in the world of the integrity of American rights, interests and honor and the right of men to govern themselves, are all assured with the proper performance of the plainest duty of the citizenry at home.

The Fourth Liberty Loan is our next objective.

There is no geography, political or physical, in the patriotism of this country. Democrats and Republicans alike love their flag and are ready to die for it. We continually insist for all parties that the war be kept out of partisan politics and that partisanship be kept out of the war.

Just as in Congress the Republicans led the fight that made possible the passage of the great war measures, so now the party membership and organization has an immediate, definite war task in the accomplishment of which it can fully function. I repeat, let there be no contest in this country as to anything that touches the war except that contest—who best can serve, who most can give.

The success of the Fourth Liberty Loan shall be the Republican party's supreme motif of thought and action until that objective is attained.

Whenever Republicans are together, by two or two thousand, it shall be a win-the-war meeting. Just as the Republican party's every action at all times has been and shall be determined solely by how we can contribute most to the war's success, so now our every thought and action shall be determined entirely by how we can make certain the quick oversubscription of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

This is a united country's next message to Germany.

The entire Republican organization in every voting precinct in this country shall be a fighting force in this Liberty Loan drive.

This is the Republican organization's business.

This is the real business of every man, woman and child in America.

"Everything else is chores."

Colonel Creed Haymond.

Colonel Creed Haymond was a well delineated figure in the life of California for three decades. He was graphic in speech and picturesque in statesmanship. In the '60's he was known as the Demosthenes of the Democratic party, and in the '80's a prominent figure in the Republican ranks. A Virginian by birth (born in Fairmont, Marion county in 1836) he arrived in California in 1852, a mere youth, and was in the mining region of Rabbit Creek, 75 miles north of Marysville, on August 26th of that year. Young Haymond spent about 14 years thereafter in Downieville, Sierra county, where he completed his education and studied law, removing from that prosperous mining camp to Sacramento in the closing years of the '60's. He had an uncommon gift of oratory and as becomes a Virginian was a Democrat during the years of the war, frequently leaving his home in the Sierras to deliver campaign speeches. He was appointed State Tide Land Commissioner by Governor Haight in 1868 and was commissioned to be the first Code Commissioner on May 4, 1870. Early in the '70's he allied himself with the Governor Booth Independent Republican or "Dolly Varden" party and was elected a State Senator from Sacramento county to serve in the legislative sessions of 1975-77. This party affiliation led him to be anti-railroad and in one of his first florid campaign speeches he even threatened to lead a party "to burn their bridges and tear up their tracks." Conness a "Hang-town" politician, wore the toga of Broderick, and he sought to control the Republican party—to be the Boss. There were those who disputed this claim, among them Newton Booth, Cornelius Cole and others, and backed by the Sacramento Union newspaper, finally succeeded. The "Spittoon Convention" (held in the State Assembly chamber before the present capitol was completed,) where cuspidores were freely used to smash opponent's heads, brought matters to a crisis, and resulted in the withdrawal of the Booth party. Two conventions were held, that of the Conness party being dubbed "Short Hairs" and the other "Long Hairs" or "straight-laced." Grove L. Johnson found politics in this chaotic state in his adopted county. He was a Democrat then, although accused of interfering with California ever had; the members were honest, indefatigable workers.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT

THOMAS J. LENNON

FOR CONGRESS

Mr. Hersman, the candidate for Congress in this District against Mr. Hayes, the present incumbent, has caused to be circulated certain statements calculated, as he thinks, to show that Mr. Hayes is not as good an American as he is. There may be some difference of opinion as to what constitutes a good American, but Mr. Hayes could be nothing else. His ancestors on his father's side came to Connecticut from Scotland in 1689 and on his mother's side from England to Boston, Massachusetts, in 1538. His forefathers were conquering the wilderness and the Indians and fighting at Saratoga and other Revolutionary battle fields in order that they might enjoy in this new land individual freedom more than one hundred and fifty years before the German forebears of Mr. Hersman ever thought of quitting their fatherland for this land of opportunity. All the male members of Mr. Hayes' family of military age fought in the Union armies and by every means in their power upheld the hands of President Lincoln in our great Civil war while the members of Mr. Hersman's family were fighting for or talking secession down in Tennessee.

It may be asked, what has this to do with the election of a Congressman in this District? Just this: Blood is thicker than water, and every man's ideals and his leading characteristics are very largely the result of hereditory, family tradition and association in the family life. From a long line of Colonial and Revolutionary ancestry Mr. Hayes has inherited a love of liberty and a hatred of tyranny and militarism wherever they exist that are just as much a part of him as his breath. If he is not a one hundred-per-cent American where would you look for one? He has no affection or attachments for any land but this. He and his forefathers for many generations have known no flag but the Stars and Stripes, and he is behind that flag with the best that is in him—with all he has and holds dear—no matter where it goes. Whatever he thought in April, 1917, about the wisdom of our embarking in it, since we entered the conflict that has been and will continue to be his attitude until the end.

OUR REPUBLICAN STANDARD-BEARER

Governor Stephens is the standard-bearer of a united Republican party. His honesty of purpose, his sincerity and his absolute fairness have won for him the confidence and friendship of all factions. He will receive the enthusiastic support at the November election of every loyal Republican in the state.

Republicans of California are proud of the record of their party—but equally proud of the splendid character of the party's nominee for governor.

As chief executive since war was declared, William D. Stephens has measured up every inch to the high position of governor. He has been a War Governor in the truest and broadest sense of that term. From the beginning he has loyally and patriotically supported the war policies of Pesident Wilson. His vision has been broadened and sharpened by his service as a member of Congress, and his experience there has peculiarly fitted him for the responsible post that he is now so successfully filling.

He is a governor of whom every California—Republican or Democrat—can well be proud.

REFORMS IN THE SUPREME COURT ARE IMPENDING

The Supreme Court of California appears to be on the eve of an important change, both in methods and in personnel. The results of the primary election are still unofficial but the enormous vote cast for Thomas J. Lennon, now presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal, and for Curtis D. Wilbur, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, predicts with almost inevitable certainty their election at the November polls.

Both were nominated at the primary in August by a vote farovershadowing that cast for the third contender and, assuming the natural conclusion that they will greatly increase their lead in the finals, the result seems to be assured. Both men appear to be sure of victory and with this triumph will come new ideas, new methods and new life to the Supreme Court, which is now approximately three years behind in its work.

Justice Lennon has performed a notable service to the state as Presiding Justice of the District Court of Appeal. He has substituted for the exasperating slow and costly consideration of cases a system of decisions from the bench. Time, expense and patience have been considered. Lawyers have been gratified and litigants benefitted. Executive capacity in the administration of the Court's affairs has simplified its problems, kept clear its calendars and removed the congestion which formerly was a matter of reproach.

The election of Lennon to the Supreme Court and the retention of Wilbur means the introduction of these reforms to that tribunal. The activities of Justice Wilbur during the time he served as Superior Judge in Los Angeles county, when he brought to that court the same remedies which have been of such advantage to the District Court of Appeal, are a pledge that he will cooperate actively and understandingly in a work so earnestly desired by the public.

ROLPH MEN SUPPORT STEPHENS

Rolph supporters are lining up loyally behind Governor Stephens, according to a poll just taken in four cities—San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland and San Jose.

This poll shows that out of seven hundred men who supported Rolph in the primaries, 587 indicated their intention to support Governor Stephens, 88 expressed a determination to write in Rolph's name on the ballot, while only 33 declared their intention to vote for either Bell or Roser.

In addition, Governor Stephens is assured of the solid backing of those who in the primaries voted for Hayes, Bordwell, Fickert and McGee. Each of these four Republican candidates have written to Governor Stephens promising their enthusiastic support. Governor Stephens will get practically the entire Heney support and a very considerable share of those who enlisted at the primaries under the Woolwine banners.

Political experts agree that Governor Stephens will be swept into office by the biggest majority ever given a gubernatorial candidate—a deserved tribute to his patriotic administration as war governor.

PATRIOTISM OF E. A. HAYES STANDS UNQUESTIONED

No one questions the loyalty and patriotism of Congressman E. A. Hayes among his colleagues. Even those of opposite political faith bear witness to his sincerity and love of country, as was strikingly illustrated on the floor of the House recently by the Majority Floor Leader, the Hon. Claude Kitchin, who, during debate declared that "the distinguished gentleman from California (Mr. Hayes) is as intensely loyal and patriotic as any man in this Capitol."

Did A "Business" Dentist Fill Your Teeth?

If a low priced (?) "business" dentist filled your teeth, you will appreciate why the Dental measure should not pass.

Amendment No. 21 would permit "operators" with little experience from other States to practise in California without an examination.

The California Dental laws are very strict now, and the high standard must be maintained.

The present law admits all competent dentists.

Low priced incompetent dentistry is always the dearest in the end.

Keep out the riff-raff from other States.

BY GENERAL JOHN F. SHEEHAN

Aftermath of the Broderick-Terry Duel.

An aftermath or incident resulting from the Broderick-Terry duel is worthy of historical reference. Jerome C. Davis, after which Davis, Yolo county, was named, a good friend of Broderick, while in a cafe referred to the duel as a "murder." This was overheard by Thomas Hayes county clerk of San Francisco in 1851-52, and one of the first settlers in Hayes valley. Having been a second to Terry, Hayes challenged Davis. A consultation was held by the friends of the Yolo farmer, and he was advised by many not to fight Hayes, as the challenger was known to be a duelist, and Davis was not a good shot with a pistol. Finally the father of Davis was called into council. Judge Isaac Davis was the county judge of Yolo, a deacon in the Episcopal church, two terms president of the State Agricultural Society and Grand Lecturer of the Masonic order, and he had in him the blood of the South, for he was born in Maryland, as was his father and grandfather. The grandfather was a companion of George Washington in the Braddock expedition and the disaster at Fort Duquesne, and he and his son served under Washington at Yorktown. And young Davis came across the plains with Fremont in '45 and had "roughed it." Said the father to the son: "Jerome, fight him; but you have the choice of weapons. Fight him with a Bowie knife in a closed room." And so the challenge was accepted; to which Hayes demurred, as "barbarous"—and the fight never came off, probably as Judge Davis anticipated. Jerome C. Davis, an early pioneer, together with his father-in-law, Joseph B. Chiles of Napa county, claimed the country from Putah Creek to Woodland, and Abraham Lincoln finally signed a grant of 7000 acres to him. His home was on the spot where now stands the California State University farm building, and near by he sowed the first alfalfa ever raised in California, the seed having been sent to him from Chili by his friend, ex-Governor Bigler. Davis died in 1881 as trustee of Sacramento. An uncle of Jerome Davis, Colonel John Davis, of Somerset, Ohio, was instrumental in sending Phil. Sheridan to West Point.

The Johnson Family.

Long before his son became distinguished in public life the name of Grove L. Johnson was familiar in every household in the Sacramento valley and well known throughout the state. He had served in the legislative assembly many terms, was a state senator 40 years ago, and in 1894 defeated Anthony Caminetti (the present U. S. Immigration Commissioner) for representative to congress, serving from March 4, 1895 to March 3, 1897, being in turn defeated by Marion de Vries of Stockton. Mr. Johnson was again elected and re-elected several times from Sacramento to the assembly, and was finally retired to private life by the Progressive movement inaugurated by his son, Hiram W. in 1910. Grove L. Johnson made his advent in Sacramento in 1865 from northern New York, with a young wife and infant son Albert, being doubtless attracted to the valley town by reason of having an uncle residing near there—and his name was Hiram Johnson, occupation a farmer, residing near the Union House on the lower Stockton road. He was an intelligent, jolly old farmer, and an enthusiastic democrat in politics from Bull Run to Appomatox, and until he died. In September, 1866, another son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grove L. Johnson and he was named Hiram. And young Hiram was born in a political cradle. The year 1865 was a memorable one to the American nation. Lee had surrendered to Grant on Virginia soil, Lincoln had been assassinated, the great armies had scattered to their homes from the Penobscott to the Oregon, and there was peace—but on paper only—for Andrew Johnson was president. Although born in a slave state the South scorned him, and the North distrusted him, and there could be no political peace under such conditions. The "irrepressible conflict" would not dawn. Sacramento county loyal during the war, was one of the most turbulent communities, politically speaking, in the country. The Union-Republican party was in the throes of rank disorganization over the spoils of office and ugly clouds of bossism were floating about. John Conness a "Hang-town" politician, wore the toga of Broderick, and he sought to control the Republican party—to be the Boss. There were those who disputed this claim, among them Newton Booth, Cornelius Cole and others, and backed by the Sacramento Union newspaper, finally succeeded. The "Spittoon Convention" (held in the State Assembly chamber before the present capitol was completed,) where cuspidores were freely used to smash opponent's heads, brought matters to a crisis, and resulted in the withdrawal of the Booth party. Two conventions were held, that of the Conness party being dubbed "Short Hairs" and the other "Long Hairs" or "straight-laced." Grove L. Johnson found politics in this chaotic state in his adopted county. He was a Democrat then, although accused of interfering with a Republican primary, but in those days, when in fact there were no primary laws, this was not considered a serious offense. Mr. Johnson, having a good education, held positions as clerk in county offices and of courts for several years, and in 1875 was nominated for State Senator by the "Short Hair" wing of the Democratic party, but was defeated. At this period the "Short Hair" wing of both parties represented the Central Pacific Railroad company. In June, 1876, when the future Governor and Senator was ten years old, Grove L. Johnson appeared before Judge Clark in the county court as attorney for the first time in a case at law. He was then nearing the age of 40, and had no profession or business other than that of a clerk, but he possessed brains, energy and courage. It was not long before he was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court and in the Centennial year he let it be known to his intimates that he had politically burned his bridges behind him; he repudiated the Democratic party and announced his affiliations with the Republican. Being a fluent, aggressive public speaker, he was welcomed to the ranks of the G. O. P. and the following year was nominated and elected to the legislative Assembly and later to the State Senate. In 1882 he was defeated for re-election to the Senate by Fred Cox, a millionaire cattle man, notwithstanding the strenuous efforts of ex-Governor Leland Stanford, Col. Creed Haymond, Jack Wright, and other railroad magnates to have him returned. The years of his retirement from public life were busy ones for him in law, largely devoted to defense in criminal cases. In the meantime his two sons, Albert and Hiram, assisted him in his legal practice, until they separated from the father and established themselves in law in San Francisco. Albert died, possessing a brilliant legal mind, and Hiram was chosen to assist Langdon and Heney in cleaning up the Augean political stables besmirched by Ruef and Mayor Schmitz. This led him to the task of cleaning up the state and to his own elevation to the Governorship and the Senate. The wife of Grove L. Johnson died leaving two sons and two daughters (Mrs. Fink and Mrs. Dray now residing in Sacramento.) A few years ago the elder Johnson married Miss Hassett, an estimable young lady of Sacramento, is leading a quiet life in the capital city, and although in feeble health is still deeply interested in politics, a stalwart of stalwart Republicans, persistently opposing the Progressive policies of his son Hiram. When quite young Senator Hiram Johnson married Miss Minnie McNeill, daughter of Archibald McNeill, of Sacramento, a carpenter and builder, and a man of sterling character. They have two sons both grown to manhood, Hiram W., Jr., and Archibald, the latter now "over there." Mrs. Johnson was born in Sacramento and educated at Mills College.

The "Legislature of a Thousand Drinks."

"Old Timers" have heard this epithet applied a thousand times to some body of lawmakers, but when and where did that body meet no one could tell. That such at some time existed and that it was a California institution no one doubted. Ex-Governor Peter H. Burnett ,in his "Recollections" written some 30 years after, casts light upon the unsolved mystery. It was the first legislature under the Constitution and it met in San Jose on December 15, 1849, and was in practically continuous session until April 22, 1850. It elected Dr. Wm. M. Gwin and John C. Fremont to be United States Senators, and Colonel E. J. G. Kewen Attorney General, S. C. Eastings Chief Justice and some other State officers.

Notwithstanding it was called the "Legislature of a thousand drinks," it lived in history as a body of sensible, level-headed men, with no "freaky" tendencies. Evidently the brand of San Jose whisky must have been of the nature of that indulged in by General Grant when he won his victories of Belmont, Fort Henry, Donaldson and Shiloh, and recalls the retort of Abraham Lincoln to General Helleck's complaint concerning General Grant's indulgence in liquor: "Find out the brand of liquor Grant uses and send a barrel to every one of our generals in the field." Governor Burnett refers to this body in his "Recollections," as "one of the best California ever had; the members were honest, indefatigable workers.

Colonel Creed Haymond.

Colonel Creed Haymond was a well delineated figure in the life of California for three decades. He was graphic in speech and picturesque in statesmanship. In the '60's he was known as the Demosthenes of the Democratic party, and in the '80's a prominent figure in the Republican ranks. A Virginian by birth (born in Fairmont, Marion county in 1836) he arrived in California in 1852, a mere youth, and was in the mining region of Rabbit Creek, 75 miles north of Marysville, on August 26th of that year. Young Haymond spent about 14 years thereafter in Downieville, Sierra county, where he completed his education and studied law, removing from that prosperous mining camp to Sacramento in the closing years of the '60's. He had an uncommon gift of oratory and as becomes a Virginian was a Democrat during the years of the war, frequently leaving his home in the Sierras to deliver campaign speeches. He was appointed State Tide Land Commissioner by Governor Haight in 1868 and was commissioned to be the first Code Commissioner on May 4, 1870. Early in the '70's he allied himself with the Governor Booth Independent Republican or "Dolly Varden" party and was elected a State Senator from Sacramento county to serve in the legislative sessions of 1975-77. This party affiliation led him to be anti-railroad and in one of his first florid campaign speeches he even threatened to lead a party "to burn their bridges and tear up their tracks." Yet Creed Haymond was not an anarchist, but he was an orator. Within a few years after this episode he was Chief Councel for the Southern Pacific Railroad company and Leland Stanford's intimate friend. In 1888 Haymond was elected a delegate from the State-at-large to the National Republican Convention, which nominated Benjamin Harrison for president. Haymond took a deep interest in military affairs and had he been on the Atlantic side in 1861 would doubtless have held an important commission, presumably in the Confederate army. About 1880 he became Colonel of a regiment in the Fourth Brigade of the National Guard, and made an excellent Commander without previous military training. He was married twice but left no descendants. The name of Colonel Creed Haymond is deserving a place among Californians of note—as an orator, statesman and lawyer. He endeared himself to a host of people, who believe he was as sincere in his public affairs in the '80's as he was in the '60's. He died at the Grand Hotel, San Francisco, January 13, 1893.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS
Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Miss Hannah Burke, for a number of years a teacher in the primary grade of the local grammar school department, has resigned her position and has retired from her profession. Mrs. Cordelia Dolan has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Dolan is the ex-superintendent of schools of Mono county. She resigned the principalship of the Aurora school in Nevada last June. For some little time she has resided with her mother at Palo Alto. Some years ago her husband, who was the sheriff of Mono county, was killed in a desperate battle with a bandit when trying to arrest him. Mrs. Dolan is the mother of a pretty little girl. The new teacher is a normal graduate and an educator of skill and ability.

The Fremont Skating Rink, near Santa Cruz avenue, was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning. The crossing of electric wires caused the blaze. When the fire department arrived the flames had made such headway that it was found impossible to save the building. The fire was prevented from spreading to adjoining buildings. The loss is $4600. There was no insurance. Mr. Moxey, the owner, says that it will not be rebuilt. The rink did a prosperous business.

Private Geise, who was shot and killed by Sergeant Vizi at San Jose last Saturday night, was a prominent member of the local Moose Club and was well-known here. He had been at Camp Fremont for esveral months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith have gone to the city for the winter. Mrs. Smith's health was very poor all summer but now she is much improved and on the road to complete recovery. This will be glad news to her many friends on the peninsula.

David W. Slade, gardener for Mr. Spalding of Atherton, was united in marriage last Saturday to Miss Lily Hetherington of this place.

Daniel J. Cavanaugh of Camp Fremont and Miss Katherine J. Gilligan were united in marriage at a nuptial mass in the Church of the Nativity on Tuesday morning, Father W. P. Sullivan officiating. The young couple is well-known in Menlo Park.

This week Mr. and Mrs. William Feeley received a letter from their son, William, who is at the front. He writes that he has gone over the top several times. The first time he went over he was separated from his company, by crawling on his stomach over the shell holes for over an hour he succeeded in reaching his headquarters. It was a thrilling experience as he was being shot at by "snipers" all the while. Young Feeley is himself a sharp shooter. He states that he participated in a number of big engagements.

General Eli Helmick was the principal guest at a dinner given Sunday evening by Major and Mrs. Philip Wales at their home in Menlo Park. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Willis Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Eyre, Lieutenant and Mrs. James B. Howell, Mrs. Macondray Moore, Mrs. Hunter Liggett and Colonel Asa Singleton.

The grammar school will be closed all next week as will the Las Lomitas school. The precautionary measure adopted by the school departments are to be commended.

All local hunters are preparing for the opening of the duck season next Wednesday. Good reports come from the local marshes to the effect that there has been a recent flight of ducks from the north. The birds are plentiful so that the Nimrods will be afforded good sport.

Richard Curtis, a student at St. Patrick's seminary and son of Peter Curtis, ex-sheriff of San Francisco, was quite low from a severe attack of pneumonia during the week. For a while his life hung in the balance. His parents are at his bedside. Yesterday reports from the seminary that the young man was improving and would recover.

Mrs. Joseph A. Donohoe has turned over the Donohoe home opposite the Catholic church and formerly occupied by Mr. Payne for a hospital for officers' wives and the wives of soldiers who may become afflicted with the prevalent contagion. Mrs. Donohoe and Mrs. Breeden have been busy for several days getting the place in condition for the reception of the patients.

The death of Father J. J. Harrington in the St. Francis hospital in San Francisco Thursday afternoon caused profound sorrow here where he was well-known. Father Harrington came here after the big fire in 1906 and remained as the assistant pastor of the Church of the Nativity for several years. For some time he has been an assistant at St. Mary's Cathedral and had been in charge of the Humane bureau. Father Harrington suffered an attack of pneumonia on his arrival from Denver this week. He was a native of San Francisco, aged 38 years. Father Harrington was a brilliant pulpit orator and a scholar and thelogian of note. His death is a distinct loss to the Catholic church.

Insurance adjusters are here determining the loss of the fire at the Sobel drug store which occurred last Sunday morning. The cause of the fire is unknown. The damage by the fire was not very large. The company will resume business next week.

St. Joseph's Parochial school closed yesterday and will not open until further notice or until the present epidemic has passed.

It was rumored yesterday that the quarantine on Camp Fremont would be partially removed today, that is that the soldiers would have the freedom of the town. All the theatres are closed and there will be no gatherings of any kind.

Rumor had it last night that the Eighth division of Camp Fremont would leave early next week. The big parade of the division takes place this morning on the Stanford field.

Mrs. George Haaker, the popular deputy in Assessor D. P. Flynn's office, was given a luncheon and shower in the kitchenette of the court house by her associates employed in the county government building Thursday during the noon hour. Mrs. Haaker was recently married. The affair was much enjoyed by the young ladies.

Mrs. Jane Comper, a former well-known resident of Redwood City, passed away at the home of her son, Henry Comper, at Oakland on Monday night last. She was a native of England, aged 69 years. The Compers moved from Redwood City some years ago. Mrs. Comper's death was hastened by the untimely ending of her brother-in-law here last Friday.

George Allain, young son of Mr and Mrs. T. Allain, who recently enlisted, passed away in the hospital at the Bremerton Navy Yard, Washington, last Friday after an illness of only a few days. Young Allain was a native of Redwood City, aged 21 and besides a young wife and his parents he is survived by five sisters and three brothers. He was interred in Union cemetery on Wednesday. Six members of the naval guard of San Francisco acted as pall bearers. The young man made the supreme sacrifice for the flag and his country. His name will always be cherished by the people of Redwood City and those who knew him.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM SAN CARLOS
Happenings in Our Northern Neighbor Town Reported by One of Its Residents

Mrs R. B. Halilton, nee Carroll Tripp, with Master Tripp and her mother, Mrs. Tripp has returned to their home at Ross, Marin county after several days visit at the home of her great aunt, Mrs. Virginia A. Lord.

Mrs. Fred H. Drake, manage of the San Carlos properties, has sold lot 1, block 35, to Mr. Albert Planker of the Baldwin Piano company, San Francisco. The Plankers are friends of the D. L. Stewarts who recently purchased the bungalow on Cypress avenue, and who are also connected with the Baldwin people. Mr. Planker's property fronts on Sycamore street, between Arroyo and Chestnut.

Miss Ileen Quinn had only recently recovered from one operation when she had the misfortune to run into a rose bush in the dark which left the point of a small thorn in the pupil of her eye near the sight. The thorn was so deeply imbedded that a delicate operation was necessary in order to save the sight of the eye. Miss Quinn is now in the hospital under the care of her physician and is reported as doing nicely.

Morton and Beer Garage owners of San Mateo and distributing agents for San Mateo county have sold one of the Fordson tractors to Asa Hull of this place, and the same will be delivered and in operation by the end of the week.

The artistic and picturesque little bungalow which contractor Hurlbut has been building on the corner of Cypress and Walnut streets will be completed by the end of the week and in readiness for Mrs. C. M. Hammel, the owner to move into.

Miss Gladys Vivian is down from San Francisco for a few days visit at the home of Mrs. Jno. V. Clark.

Our pioneer merchant and manager of the San Carlos Emporium has been making strenuous efforts to have a phone established in his building for the convenience of his patrons, when the public telephone office at the postoffice is closed, for the past four months but on account of the shortage of wire, due to war conditions, the phone people are still unable to accommodate him.

The unique "Liberty Loan Special" decorated with the flags of every country of the entente allies en route from San Francisco to Santa Barbara carrying railroad officials of the coast division, who were soliciting bond sales, attracted a great deal of attention during their stay of fifteen minutes here while side-tracked to allow important trains to pass. They had secured 100 per cent of the employes here as purchasers before their departure.

Mr. George H. McKeune who as scenic painter on the Orpheum circuit with headquarters at St. Louis, was recently sent to Los Angeles to do a special and delicate piece of work for the Orpheum people in the angel city. Mr. McKeune's time was so limited that he was only permitted to stop over a few hours for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Jno. V. Clark, here, upon his return trip to St. Louis. Mr. McKeune is a native son of California but has made his home in St. Louis for the past fifteen years.

Since the meeting of the San Carlos County Democratic Committee, and their endorsement of Senator Phelan because of his unstinted support of the administration during the war times, it reminds us that Senator Phelan has without question given the administration all the support that is possible for one of his temperament and capacity, and he has no doubt did this service, as the Democratic County Committee expresses it, "by his eminent refinement and his wonderful command of language," yet as the senator don't need the job to pay for his immediate necessities we think it would be well to transfer it to Jimmie Rolph two years hence because he is more up-to-date, for when it comes to the gentile or that happy faculty of speaking in plain English we halfway imagine that Jimmie won't have to take off his hat to Senator Phelan or anybody else.

Mrs. Lester A. Conklin with her brood of three little ones has gone to Piedmont to visit with her parents and other friends and relatives.

San Carlos has had to surrender again to the progress of the times. Heretofore Asa E. Hull ha sbeen a familiar figure with his old horse and buggy driving from the ranch to the post office two or three times daily, but since he has learned to operate the Fordson Tractor, he next learned to negotiate a Ford run-about, and he has now pensioned the old mare and she grazes contentedly on the green hills near-by.

PESCADERO PICNIC AND REUNION AT GOLDEN GATE

Despite threatening weather, on Sunday, September 15th, a large number of former and present Pescadero residents congregated at the Children's Play Grounds in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco and thoroughly enjoyed an old-time basket picnic.

This now well established annual function, more than justified the efforts of those who conceived the idea of a reunion and were instrumental in instituting these exceedingly enjoyable affairs, which so happily afforded an opportunity for fromer Pescaderians to renew pleasant acquaintenceships.

Many who had not met or seen one another for some considerable time were heard to complain of aching sides as they laughingly talked over old times and past experiences.

Confessions of pie swiping expeditions and other mischievous pranks were heard from those least suspected, and when County Clerk Joseph Nash, in response to a request for a speech, humorously related a number of stories at the expense of several of the blushingly sedate ones present, the younger generation present received the shock of their young lives.

It is the present intention to hold these reunion picnics each year hereafter in Golden Gate Park and it is hoped that next year's reunion will bring a greater number together, including those who under present war conditions are separated from their family and friends.

Those present were as follows:

County Clerk Joseph H. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Woodham, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGillan and daughter, Myrtle, Mrs. Neva Wilson and daughter, Marcia, Mrs. Nettie Lewis, son Merritt, daughter, Muriel, Mrs. Harry Adair and Miss Ruby Adair, Mrs. Susan Wilson, Mrs. Lena Miller, Miss Helen Cantrell, Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan, and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wilcox, son Wilbur, daughter, Muriel, Mr. and Mrs. August Fromm, son August, daughter Helene, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A Wonderful Discovery in Gas Heating, Peculiarly Adapted to Our California Climate

"Radiantfire" is the modern open fireplace. It has the charm and fascination of the firelight, the same flood of radiant heat, without the dirt of smoke, firewood or ashes, and the danger from flying sparks.

NOISELESS AND ODORLESS

It lights quickly—can be turned down low—no deadening of the air.

Why not install one in that unused fireplace?

N. B.—We sell and install the Humphrey "Radiantfire." See demonstration in our Heating Department at headquarters.
